Dear Marketa, Karolina, Richard and Aleksey,

The Prince of Wales has asked me to thank you for your letter of 12th November.

His Royal Highness is most grateful to you for taking the trouble to write as you did. To help answer your questions, every day is a busy day for The Prince of Wales; not only does he have to perform many public duties on behalf of The Queen, but he also supports many charities. His Royal Highness has a very full diary and is given each day a specially prepared card called a 'Day Card', listing his appointments for that day. You may like to visit the website, www.princeofwales.gov.uk and there you will find lots of information about The Prince of Wales, including 'Royal Duties'. His Royal Highness has many interests and hobbies, including skiing, gardening, and watercolour painting. The Prince of Wales takes a keen interest in history.

His Royal Highness has asked me to send you his warmest thanks for writing and his very best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Claudia Spens
